

Beyond the Streets Good Practice Guide (GPG) 2016

Electronic version (2nd Edition)

This Guide is for local community organisations working with those in prostitution by offering support and routes out.

With nearly 20 years experience in the sector, and with collective input from established projects, we want to save you time and energy so that you can work more effectively with those affected by prostitution in the UK.

This 2nd Edition gives:

- Up to date information on working with those in prostitution in the UK
- Guidance on how to grow - covering key development phases from the initial idea to running a healthy project or outreach
- NEW Template policies that are tailored to this specialised sector
- NEW Safeguarding information for charities working in this field
- NEW Safer Recruitment pack

This Guide is for you if you are:

- An individual, group or church looking to start an outreach in your area
- A new charity
- An established team who are revisiting policies

Cost:

- £30 - Beyond the Streets affiliated projects
- £60 - Charities and non-profit organisations
- £100 - Statutory sector

What others have said about our Good Practice Guide:

'The GPG was the most unbelievably helpful resource: practical yet holistic. It was readable but also in depth, covering working with women and organisational development as well as all the policies. It was like having directions to a far off place printed out for you and all you had to do was follow.' (Affiliate practitioner, 2016).

'The GPG is a 'must have' for new projects and those wanting to review too, its saved me so much time and reassured me I was going the right way. Thank you BTS!' (Affiliate practitioner, 2016).
