

OUR MANIFESTO

We see the possibility of life beyond sexual exploitation.

We work tirelessly to stop the abuse.

We work to see women safe from coercion, violence and exploitation.

We see women's lives limited by the labels placed upon them – Prostitute. Sex Worker. Client. Case. We work with her to write a different story. We see a woman. A daughter. A friend. A family member.

We want to see women not defined by their past but energised by their future.

Our work maps out possibilities with her and joins her on her journey as she walks towards the goals she sets.

We champion belief in change and a better future.

We celebrate women overcoming adversity and overcoming the barriers which would hold them back.

We recognise that we cannot do this alone.

We know that sexual exploitation happens in every community and so it takes the involvement of entire communities to tackle it together.

We work with others, hosting a national network of affiliated projects who share our commitment to the cause.

We know we are stronger together.

We want to ensure her story is heard.

We recognise her as the expert of her own experience and we make space in a noisy arena for her experience to be heard.

She knows she is not alone or misrepresented.

We know that those most in need don't get the treatment they deserve.

We work with those on the frontline – Police, Social Workers, Health Professionals – to improve women's experience of seeking support.

We think every woman deserves to be met with a compassionate response.

We know that the injustice we respond to is not isolated, but part of a much bigger picture – a local expression of the global injustice of violence against women that preys on the vulnerability of women in every community.

We will not stop fighting against sexual exploitation. We fight on, until every individual is free to thrive, free from sexual exploitation.
